Add to Section 8 the following: "That before the issue of any of the bonds provided for in this Act, the same shall be provided for by resolution of the Board of Commissioners of said District, setting forth the amount and denomination of said bonds to be issued, the rate of interest the same are to bear, and the time, place and conditions upon which the same and interest thereon shall become due and payable; but no bonds shall be issued unless the question of issuance of said bonds shall be submitted to and approved by the qualified electors of said district who are owners of real or personal property therein. The form of the ballots at said election shall be "For Road Bonds" or "Against Road Bonds." Such election shall be held at the several places in said district where the last general election was held in said district unless said Board of Commissioners shall otherwise authorize, and said Board shall appoint the inspectors and clerk of election for each of said election precincts in said district. Said Board of Commissioners shall appoint a day for the holding of such election and shall publish notice thereof in said District at least once a week for four consecutive weeks before such election shall be held. Such election shall be conducted and the canvass of the votes certified to and returned, and the returns canvassed substantially in the manner and within the time prescribed for the holding of general election, except as herein otherwise provided, and except that the returns of said election from each precinct in said district shall be delivered to the Chairman of the Board of Commissioners of said district instead of to the County officers or officials to whom such returns are usually made; said returns shall be thereupon immediately delivered by the Chairman of said Board of Commissioners to the Board of Commissioners of said District, and said Board of Commissioners all immediately canvass said returns and declare the result of such election and cause said result to be recorded in the minutes of said Board of Commissioners.

Mr. Putnam moved the adoption of the amendment, which was agreed to.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The following message from the House of Representatives was received and read:

House of Representatives,
Tallahassee, Fla., May 31, 1927.

Hon. S. W. Anderson,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives returns as requested—

House Bill No. 1389:

A bill to be entitled An Act to amend Sections 10, 14, 16, 17, 22 and 24, of Chapter 11431, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1925, approved December 1, 1925, relating to the upper St. Johns River Navigation District; increasing its bonding limit from $750,000.00 to $1,250,000.00; providing that an election shall be called by the County Commissioners of Seminole and Brevard Counties upon the question of issuing said bonds; changing its tax limit and defining its taxing powers, and procedure for the assessment, levy and collection of its navigation taxes; requiring its commissioners to give bond, to approve its expenditures and to issue its warrants.

Very respectfully,
FRANK WEBB,
Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

And House Bill No. 1389, contained in the above message was again placed before the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Parrish, the Senate reconsidered its action in passing the bill.

On motion of Mr. Parrish, by unanimous consent, the bill was placed back on its second reading for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. Parrish offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 1389:

In Section 14, immediately following the words "Said District," and preceding the sentence beginning with the words "The lien," add the following: "Provided, however, that no tax or back tax shall be levied, assessed and collected under any of the provisions of this Act unless a majority of the qualified voters of said district voting in such election vote for the issuance of the bonds of said District referred to in Section 10 of this Act; except, however, the Board of Commissioners of Upper St. Johns River Navigation District shall have the power and are hereby authorized to levy, assess and collect a tax against such portions of said District as have not heretofore paid a tax to liquidate its pro-rata share of the indebtedness incurred under the Act creating said District should the bonds be voted on as provided by Section 10 of this Act be defeated by a majority of the voters of said District participating in said election."

Mr. Parrish moved the adoption of the amendment.
